

Pilgrim Basset Hound Club

Presents

Lecture on Canine Emergency Medical Service and Critical Care

By Dr. Jennifer E. Waldrop, DVM, DACVECC

ASSISTANT MEDICAL DIRECTOR, MASSACHUSETTS VETERINARY REFERRAL HOSPITAL

August 14, 2011

Massachusetts Veterinary Referral Hospital

20 Cabot Road, Woburn,
Massachusetts 01801
781.932.5802

Guests are Welcome • No fee but RSVP is required. Seating is limited.

Dr. Jennifer Waldrop received her DVM from University of California-Davis and completed her internship at the Veterinary Medical and Surgical Group in Ventura, CA. After a year of emergency practice, she then completed a three year residency at Tufts University School of Veterinary Medicine and became board certified in Emergency and Critical Care. Dr. Waldrop is the Assistant Medical Director - Massachusetts Veterinary Referral Hospital.

Schedule

10:00am - 11:30pm	PBHC Board of Directors Meeting
11:30am - 1:00pm	Pot Luck Lunch & PBHC General Meeting
1:00pm - 3:00pm	Presentation by Dr. Waldrop
3:00pm	Tour of Hospital Facilities

On-site parking is available at no charge. The meeting and presentation will be in the hospital conference room. Check in at main reception desk or enter through Physical Therapy & Rehab entrance in rear of Hospital.

For driving directions go to: <http://ivghospitals.com/> and under Our Hospitals select Mass Vet Referral Hosp.

RSVPs are required

To secure a place at this informative seminar or form additional program information:

Richard Ruthfield: 781.245.7230 or 617.957.7980

www.pilgrim-basset-hound-club.org